The image shows the original iPhone product page from 2007. On the left, a hand holds the iPhone, displaying its home screen with various app icons like SMS, Calendar, Photos, Camera, Calculator, Stocks, Maps, Weather, Notes, Clock, and Settings. The top of the screen shows 'cingular' and '12:34 PM'. On the right, the text reads 'Introducing iPhone' followed by a paragraph describing it as a combination of a mobile phone, a widescreen iPod, and an Internet communications device. Below this is a list of features with corresponding icons: Widescreen iPod, Revolutionary Phone, Breakthrough Internet Device, and High Technology. At the bottom right, there are links for 'Watch the Keynote' and 'Sign-up to Learn More'.

The image shows a screenshot of the MIT News website. At the top left is the MIT logo and the text "Massachusetts Institute of Technology". To the right are navigation links for "NEWS", "VIDEO", "SOCIAL", and "FOLLOW MIT", along with social media icons for RSS, Twitter, Facebook, Google+, Instagram, and YouTube. Below this is the "MIT News" logo in large white letters, with the tagline "ON CAMPUS AND AROUND THE WORLD" underneath. To the right of the logo is a search bar with a "Browse" button, the word "or", and a "Search" button with a magnifying glass icon. The main content area features a large image of a flexible solar cell being held by tweezers over a laboratory flask. To the right of this image is a smaller inset image showing a hand holding a transparent, flexible solar cell. Below the inset image is a text block describing the solar cell and its development at MIT. At the bottom right of the inset image are navigation arrows and a "FULL SCREEN" button.
